

I heard a bird say...

Just the other day...I was sitting at the kitchen table studying my class on the book of Revelation. It's a tremendous class and I highly recommend it if you are interested. I was just about at the half way point of the lecture when I decided to pause the lecture, write some notes down and Selah for a few moments, when all of a sudden...I heard a bird in the tree outside say...LORA, LORA.

(Whaaat! How did that happen, Did I just hear??)

The bird had flown into the tree in our yard and spoke my name very clearly, twice; LORA...LORA. The windows in the house were open but I did not see the bird because, hearing my name so distinctly grabbed my attention and brought me into a 'Kairos moment'. Every fiber of my being was at attention...listening...and it happened again and then one more time.

LORA, LORA
LORA, LORA

Revelation 4:1 says...After these things I saw, and behold, a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, a voice as of a trumpet speaking with me, one saying, Come up hither, and I will show thee the things which must come to pass hereafter.

In Revelation 4:1 it says, "Come up hither..." (KJV). I'd just finished studying this portion of scripture and the LORD spoke to me and said; "Let Me bring you to a new vantage point, let Me give you new revelation...do you hear My voice?" It's funny at times how God uses natural things to get our attention and point us to the spiritual, isn't it? Something else that struck me about the bird saying my name twice is that in the scriptures whenever we see a word written twice, it means to heed what is being said, pay very close attention.

He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. --Revelation 3:22

Author: Lora Rozkowski is a licensed minister, teacher & business owner

WORSHIP WARRIORS: worshipwarriors.net

For more information send an email to: rozkowski@gmail.com

Copyright 2017 © All Rights Reserved (Reprinted with permission)

I heard a bird say...

The bird spoke my name three times LORA, LORA, I sat listening and paying close attention to hear my name just one more time...silence...then a fluttering of wings and it flew away. After a time of pondering what had just happened, I believe there is a message from the LORD to us. When studying the number 3, it is a sacred number, it's the number of the trinity; Father, Son & Spirit. It brings us to the word in Hebrew "Echad" = one. The LORD is one and when we enter in the spirit we are one with Him!

Beloved, take time to listen to what the Spirit is saying...He's speaking...can you hear the sound of His voice? He wants our full attention! It may not come as you expect but, those suddenlies of God, the Kairos moments will happen in your life, when you take time to listen to what the Spirit is saying.

Selah...

~Lora

10-24-14

RESOURECES:

Pixabay – Free Images (CC0 Liscence)

Author: Lora Rozkowski is a licensed minister, teacher & business owner

WORSHIP WARRIORS: worshipwarriors.net

For more information send an email to: rozkowski@gmail.com

Copyright 2017 © All Rights Reserved (Reprinted with permission)

I heard a bird say...

Author: Lora Rozkowski is a licensed minister, teacher & business owner

WORSHIP WARRIORS:* worshipwarriors.net

For more information send an email to: rozkowski@gmail.com

Copyright 2017 © All Rights Reserved (Reprinted with permission)